AUGUST FOOD RATIONS ANNOUNCED

Food rations for August have been announced, as follows:

Cereals: No change.

Children's food: Children from 1 to 22 months of age will receive 250 grams of Dutch cakes on Special Coupons DV II and DV II SZ of the tickets for children's food.

Meat: Basic rations remain substantially the same. For consumers over 6 years of age, however, 200 grams of the meat ration are being replaced by other foods (in July, this amount was 300 grams). For consumers from 6 to 20 years, this 200 grams of meat will be replaced by four eggs or 200 grams of butter on coupons 2/4, 2/5, 2/8, and 2/9. Adults over 20 years will receive four eggs or 400 grams of artificial edible fat on Coupons 2/11 and 2/12.

Fats: Butter will again be distributed to all consumers in August. Applications must be made by the end of July, even for butter and artificial edible fat which the consumer intends to buy instead of meat.

Eggs, milk, and cheese: No change.

Curd: Rations to persons under 20 years of age (200 grams) and over 20 (150 grams), which were increased for July, will remain the same in August. The first order form for milk is also an application for the purchase of curd.

Sugar and candies: No change.

Powdered cocoa: Persons under 20 will receive 100 grams of powdered cocoa in September /sic/. Applications must be made by the end of this month by surrendering Special Coupons 1a-6, 1b-6, and 1c-6 of the tickets for sugar and miscellaneous foods.

Fruit syrup: The ration is unchanged. Fruit syrup will be distributed directly on Special Coupons 1a-5, and 1b-5 of the tickets for sugar.

Potatoes: All consumers will receive 8 kilograms of early potatoes. Preliminary application must be made by the end of this month, using Order Form 53 for potatoes.

Cooking salt: Cooking salt is unrationed as of 1 August.
